"May Your Dreams be Realized"

In Loving Memory ...

Shane R. Demers

June 17, 1983-August 13, 20(

The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on his tombstone
From the beginning — to the end.

He noted that first came the date of his birth
And spoke of the following date with tears
But he said that what mattered the most of all
Was the dash between those years.

For the dash represents all the time
That he spent alive on earth ...
And now only those who loved him
Know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not how much we own:
The cars ... the house ... the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard ...
Are there things you'd like to change?

For you never know how much time is left,.
(You could be at "dash mid-range.")

If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real,
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger,
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile ...
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy's being read
With your life actions to rehash ...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?

-Linda M. Ellis

From afar look down on us
Keep our faith and help us trust
Keep us strong to get through these times
Show us your ways so we can learn to shine

From afar take us in your arms
Chase away our fears and keep us from harm
You're our Angel now, our Guardian above
Forever and always you will be loved.

-Theresa Demers

In Loving Memory ...

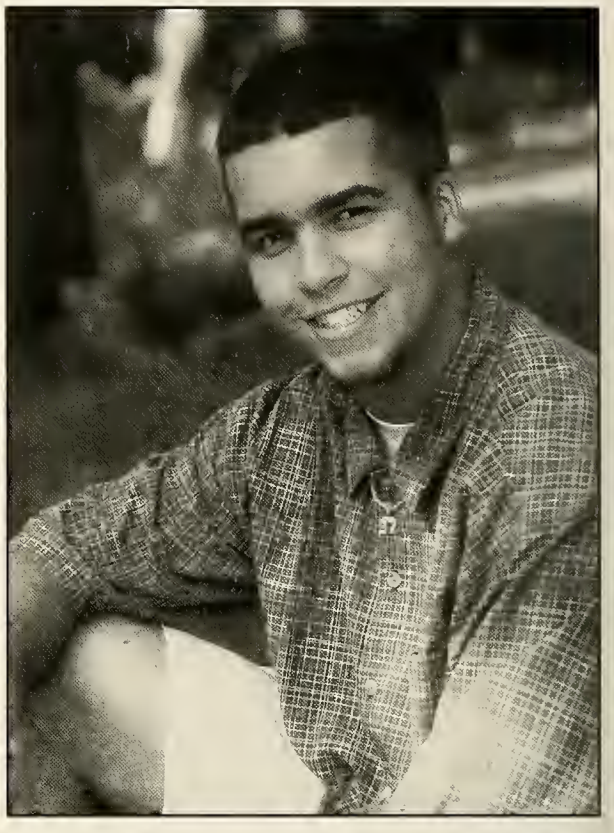
Nicholas James Garieri April 6th, 1983 - July 11th, 2001

"Heaven's Newest Angel"

The clocks stopped ticking and time was at a pause,
The Heavens all are celebrating, does anyone know the cause?
"I do," whispers an angel youthful and quite petite,
"The Lord just gave a boy his halo, isn't that real neat?
A bright new star is added to twinkle in the world's inky sky,
And a new baby boy was born with his curious sparkling eyes."
The teenage angel smiles for he is truly free,
Pain and sadness are no longer a burden and he's home for eternity.
Here, life is everlasting and all will come home to him someday,
But until then, he'll watch over his loved ones and guide them on their way.
His life on Earth will be remembered by all those who pass by and see,
The little white cross adorned with memories that wasn't planned to be.
Yes, life is unfair for Nick to be taken away,
But just keep in mind, that he really is with you each and everyday.
That unexpected night many cried for the passing of such a young boy,
However in Heaven they welcomed their new teenage joy.

Written in memory of Nick Garieri.
Dedicated to all those he loved in his life.

- Jaclyn M. Ide



Mario,

Congratulations! You have made it!We are very proud of you! Keep following your dreams. Always remember your father's words,"Use this!" as he pointed to your head. No matter where you are, you will always be in our hearts.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Malcolm

Munchie,

Mom and Dad are so proud of you and we love you very much. It is hard to believe that you are already graduating, it seems like yesterday you were just a little girl. We have many happy memories of you growing up and look forward to many more. Life isn't always easy, but try to do your best and we will support you in everything you do.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Katie and Mark,

We've been planning this party for a long time!
Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tony, Rose & Kolby
Mom, Dad & Gordon

Through the years of infanthood we've dealt with colic, ear infections and other ailments.

Through pre-school to high school our lives were busy with homework, studying, baseball, basketball, football and other sports.

Through the years there's been expenses for the much needed boys toys such as trucks, bicycles, go-carts, dirt bikes, four wheelers and pickup trucks.

As the years go by, many things change. but never did any ailment, nor any busy day. nor any expenses ever compare to the joy, happiness and memories you have brought to our lives. You have grown into such a fine young man and we are proud to call you "Our Son." Best wishes and may all your dreams come true!

With All of Our Love,
Mom & Dad

There are places I remember, all my life... though some have changed. Some forever not for better, some have gone and some remain

All these places have their moments, with lovers and friends... I still can recall, some are dead and some are living....

In my life, I've loved them all

But of all these friends and lovers, there is no one that compares with you and these memories lose their meaning, when I think of lovers as something new

Though I know I'll never lose affection, of people and things that went before, I know I'll often stop and think about them

In my life, I love you more

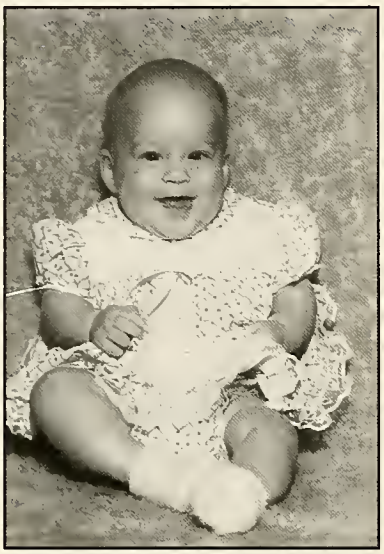
Though I know I'll never lose affection, of people and things that went before, I know I'll often stop and think about them

In my life, I love you more...
In my life, I love you more ...

Sherri,

We are so proud of you today and every day. You are beautiful in mind, spirit, and body. Keep "dancing" and be happy forever.

Love,
Mom and Dad



Hello Elizabeth!

You grew up too fast and now you are a senior in high school. Good Luck Honey.

Love Mom & Dad

Dear Beth,

May your future be bright and filled with happiness.

Paul & Enyeneama

To: Breanna, Graces, Katie, Kelly, Keri, Lisa, Lisi, Mel, Sherri & Steph

Thanks for sharing your high school years with us. We've had a lot of laughs with you, (the singing/ dancing/stories,) and we've enjoyed every minute spent with you. Whenever you eat pancakes or find Twizzlers on the floor, think of us!

Love you all!
The Trainors

Lisa,

Follow your dreams. This is something you've believed in for a very long time. Not only have you pursued your dreams, but you've helped others achieve theirs. You have a special talent of making people feel good about themselves. You've always been mature beyond your years. When you smile, you light up the room. We love you very much and are so proud of you. Keep reaching for the stars.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Lauren

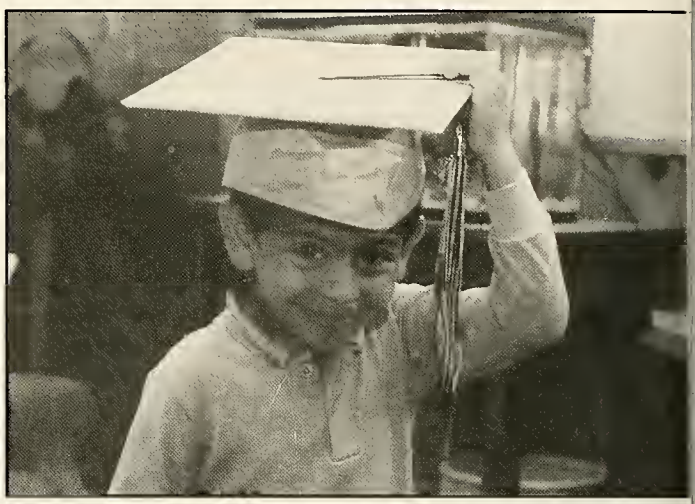
Kelly,

You're everything we could have wished for in a daughter. You show maturity, talent, good judgment, and have a great sense of humor. You add something special to the lives of those you touch. Keep the friends you've made, but never overlook an opportunity to make a new one. You have many wonderful things ahead of you (like reading The Hobbit!). You have the capability and great potential- go for it!

We're so proud of you and we love you with all our hearts,
Mom and Dad

TO THE GRADUATE,
NO MORE A CHILD

To the graduate, no more a child,
On whom these many years my love has shone:
Take pleasure in the pleasure of my pride,
However much you've managed on your own.
Even as you dance upon your stage,
Growing ever more endowed with grace,
Remember that my love will never change,
A place for you beyond all time and place.
Do what you will within your own wide world,
Understanding in your own wise way:
Always know you are my field of wonder,
The wild, star-strewn moor on which I wander,
Even as I honor you today.



Adam,

As always, I am Extremely proud of you.

Love you,
Mom

Congratulations to the class of 2002 and most especially to Breanna. We are so proud of the person that you've become. Follow your dreams and your heart and all that you wish for will be yours!

Jamie,

Wow, my little girl has grown into a beautiful woman. There's so much I know you will accomplish; you have the determination to achieve what you believe in. You have learned so much through your school years and will continue to grow. I will always be there for you as you challenge your dreams. I am very proud of you!

Jamie,

Though you'll always be my little girl; the maturity you've shown and the decisions you've made about your future have made me realize you have grown up. Never lose sight of your goals and always know; I'm there to help in any way I can. Above all, be happy, confident, and know you've made your mother and I proud.

Love,
Dad

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you don't do than by the ones you did. So throw off the bowlines, sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in our sails. Explore. Dream.

The History of the Class of 2002

When entering Southbridge High in the fall of 1998, the Class of 2002 quickly became known as "one of the best class es Southbridge High had seen in awhile." It was clear that we had our act together and we gave 100% whenever need ed. We knew that within the next four years we would definitely leave our mark.

We began our freshmen year with much anticipation. After all, we were in high school now. We were very fortunat to get two of the best class advisors the school had to offer; Mr. Cournoyer and Ms. Checka. We held class elections an chose Ashley Lazo, Kara Travinski, Carolyn Towle, and Emi Jachimczyk as our officers. Our first class project was th Halloween Hall Wars. We chose a theme of autumn, graveyard, and hell. This was our first opportunity to show ou true colors. We received second place, placing only under the seniors. Soon after came the Thanksgiving Rally wher we gave the seniors a run for their money by placing second in the Penny Wars. We also received second place in bot the skit and poster contests. Our skit was entitled "Pioneer Jones: The Quest for the Holy Grail." Later in the year cam the Winter Carnival. Who could forget Dallas' reign as Miss Snowflake or Emi talking to her shoe while being hypno tized. With freshmen year coming to an end and sophomore year approaching we held elections for next year's E Board. Ashley, Carolyn, Katie Alicea, and Lisa MacGillivray would be our new officers.

We entered our sophomore year having established a positive reputation for ourselves from the previous year, an we were aware of what would be expected of us as sophomores. Through multiple fundraisers and raffles we began t raise money for the following year. Thanks to the poor sportsmanship of the upperclassmen, we were unable to per form skits at the annual Thanksgiving Rally; however, our true Pioneer Pride showed through our poster. By the en of the year we were able to book the Crowne Plaza for next year's prom. We ended the year by reelecting class officers Ashley, Carolyn, Lisa, and Katie.

We were finally upperclassmen. We entered what would end up being a very successful junior year. Before we knev it, it was the Thanksgiving Rally again. Who can forget Jaime and Jay Birds' performance in our Austin Powers' skit Both of them received Best Actor and Best Costume awards at the semi, but ironically enough our skit came in second Soon it was time for the prom. After much fundraising and a lot of hard work, our prom, "A Take As Old As Time" wa a huge success. Junior year was coming to a close and we all anticipated our senior year. But before the year was ove we discussed our class trip. We knew that we would be the first class in a long time to go on one. We reelected our offi cers: Ashley, Lisa, Carolyn, and Katie.

Unfortunately the summer proved to be a very tragic one. We lost one terrific friend and classmate, Shane Demers in a car accident in late August. You remain in our hearts forever Shane!

After what seemed like a never-ending summer, we finally entered Southbridge high for the final time as seniors We had a lot on our plates, but we were ready for it. We booked our class trip to Disney's Grad Night in Florida whicl about 80% of the class participated in. Knowing we would need to do a lot of fundraising, we got started right away We hosted a successful Halloween Dance, sold Yankee Candles, as well as Entertainment Books all before Thanksgiv ing. Soon Thanksgiving rolled around again.This year's rally consisted of all the usuals, as well as a contest for Senio King and Queen. After watching David Burris and Kara Travinski perform Michael Jackson's "Black and White," it wa obvious that they were our king and queen. We came in as one of the most mature classes SHS has seen in awhile, an through our four years we have lived up to that positive reputation. We especially thank our advisors, Mr. Cournoye and Ms. Checka. We have come a long way thus far, and plan to continue into a successful future. Much gratitude t everyone who has helped us during our high school careers. Our friendships, memories and Pioneer Pride will neve be forgotten!

Volume 40 of the Musket was produced by the Southbridge High School Yearbook Staff. Three hundred copies were printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing of Topeka, Kansas. Mr. Matthew Fenn was the area representative. The one hundred sixty-four pages were printed on recycled paper.
